

2007 Regional Education Collaboration Project

Enrichment and Development of Education in Hokkaido

Training Support for Current Teachers

- Training for teachers with 10 years of experience
- Open Lectures for Current Teachers
- Training courses for school nutritionist
- Training for teachers concerning entrepreneurial education
- Training courses for school librarian

Joint Research

- Collaborative project on moral education
- Scope Sponsored Project (activities for elementary English education)
- Program for the model curriculum development for teacher training

School Support

- School Assistant Teacher (SAT)
- Project for placing after school tutors
- "Volunteer practice I, II" liberal arts elective course
- School education support activities, support activities to improve scholastic abilities
- Collaboration projects between high school and university

2007 projects for the promotion of contribution to the local and regional society

(cooperation agreement type: projects that individual campus of Hokkaido University of Education engages in based on the cooperation agreement with local governments) Refer to 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 10 of 2007 projects for the promotion of contribution to the local and regional society

(Invitation type: projects that have been accepted and invited by the screening committee which individuals or groups within the Hokkaido University of Education engage in) Refer to 1, 3, 5, 9, and 11-17 of 2007 projects for the promotion of contribution to the local and regional society

Situation of the support for university education reform (GP)

- "Development of Education Practice Program for Schools in Remote Area and Small-sized Schools" (Unique GP 2005-2008)
- "Program for the Development and Design of Advanced Education Practice for Current Teachers" (Graduate School Reform GP 2007-2009)
- "Regionally Integrated Campus for the Realization of a Sustainable Society" (Contemporary GP 2007-2009)

Support for Lifelong Learning

- General Open Lectures
- Course Open Lectures
- Training course for social education
- University lectures
- Support for lifelong learning in the local and regional society by university faculty members

Promotion of Region, Culture and Sports

- Training for supervising protection against disasters
- Mobile museum
- Training for supervising wind instrument in a region
- Health promotion for residents
- Digital archives of regional cultural assets and

Exchange among personnel

- Agreement concerning the exchange among personnel from the Hokkaido Board of Education, Sapporo Board of Education and Hokkaido University of Education

Each project number corresponds to the number of “List of 2007 projects for the promotion of contribution to the local and regional society”.
List of 2007 projects for the promotion of contribution to the local and regional society

	Project Name	General Outline	Campus	Misc.
1	Improvement of Sapporo residents' reaction in protection against disasters	This project aims to improve the local residents' reaction to protect themselves from disasters, by hosting open lectures to residents, administrative staff members and students living in Sapporo and surrounding districts such as “Problems concerning bathrooms at evacuation sites (tentative name) which is one of the most important problems that people come across at evacuation sites	Sapporo Campus	Invitation type
2	Establishment of university center (consortium) to collaborate with Hakodate City	The regional collaboration center established last year is a consortium of Hakodate City and 8 higher education institutions in the city, which plays a crucial role by maintaining the collaborative system with university center. This year, the consortium will promote core regional collaborative activities by taking part in original projects of regional collaboration center such as making pamphlets for people that introduce the research of faculty members and open lectures.	Hakodate campus	Cooperation agreement type
3	“Training project to improve the specialization to support special assistance education” Part 3	(1) Training project to improve the specialization of staff and faculty members of our university and affiliated schools in the Hakodate region; (2) To aim for the promotion of the center-like role for the practice of special assistance education in Hokkaido by gathering the achievements of practical research from other campuses of our University other than Hakodate and by planning training projects that aim to improve the specialization	Hakodate campus (Special assistance school affiliated to Hakodate campus)	Invitation type
4	Model project for dispatching student volunteers to schools and for local education	This project aims to dispatch student volunteers from the Asahikawa campus to local governments that have signed a mutual cooperation agreement.	Asahikawa campus	Cooperation agreement type
5	Teacher support project for “handicraft education” in Kamikawa region	As the final stage of the guidance support project and handicraft learning that have been fostered up until now through the collaboration with Kamikawa technical and home economics study group and technicians' association, this project aims to host skill-up training sessions and establish and enrich the system for information sharing regarding such training session.	Asahikawa campus	Invitation type
6	“Teshikaga education project” based on the cooperation agreement	This project aims to implement the comprehensive regional education development project based on the mutual cooperation agreement with Teshikaga Town. (1) Joint investigation and research with the local government and board of education based on the mutual cooperation agreement; (2) improvement of the quality of students as teachers through visits to schools and working as school support volunteers	Kushiro campus	Cooperation agreement type
7	School support project for Eastern Hokkaido (Dohto) Area: Wind instrument lessons in Nemuro 2007	This project has helped to host the wind instrument lessons as part of the collaboration project mentioned in the mutual cooperation agreement with Nemuro City. The aim is to continuously develop and enrich this project this year.	Kushiro campus	Cooperation agreement type
8	Invitation to Europe	Based on the mutual cooperation agreements with Kushiro and Iwamizawa, this project aims to contribute to the regional society by responding to the intellectual and artistic demands of the people of Kushiro and Iwamizawa Cities by providing opportunities to attend lectures concerning European thought and climate and concerts of European music.	Kushiro campus	Cooperation agreement type
9	Hosting mobile science experiment classes operated and managed by students in the Eastern Hokkaido (Dohto) Area	This project aims to conduct and host mobile science experiment classes that have been designed and planned by students in Dohto area. This is a joint collaboration project with the laboratory affiliated with the curriculum development group of the regional school education major and the laboratory affiliated with the science group of the school curriculum development major.	Kushiro campus	Invitation type
10	Collaboration project with local governments based on the mutual agreement	(1) To build a system to transmit information of regional collaboration activities conducted by the university based on the mutual agreement with Iwamizawa City. (2) To conduct activities to aim for the creation of regional identity through sports based on the mutual agreement with Bifuka Town.	Iwamizawa campus	Cooperation agreement type
11	Regional collaboration project of Iwamizawa City and music course, fine arts program at the Iwamizawa campus of Hokkaido University of Education	This project will aim to contribute to the artistic culture of Iwamizawa residents by hosting 2 of each green hills concert and lecture concert by students and staff of the music course of the fine arts program, following the agreement signed between Iwamizawa City and Hokkaido University of Education.	Iwamizawa campus	Invitation type
12	Regional collaboration project between Iwamizawa campus of Hokkaido University of Education, Iwamizawa City and Sorachi Soccer Association	This project aims to train all around soccer players by teaching soccer techniques and strategies as soccer players as well as judging techniques by hosting joint training sessions of under 15 soccer players of training center at Iwamizawa campus and junior high league of the President's cup of the Hokkaido University of Education, in cooperation with the Sorachi regional soccer association.	Iwamizawa campus	Invitation type

13	Hokkaido University of Education Opera Workshop Vol. 3 (Iwamizawa)	This project aims to conduct admission type workshop to discuss the significance of opera among residents and to conduct basic training for the establishment of citizens opera through the collaboration between university and local and regional society.	Iwamizawa campus	Invitation type
14	Iwamizawa Youth Kendo Class "Adventure Club"	The Iwamizawa campus and the Iwamizawa Kendo Federation will establish Kendo class for elementary and junior high school students in Iwamizawa City.	Iwamizawa campus	Invitation type
15	Seminar to discuss children's education while listening to music"	This project aims to provide an opportunity for general citizens to think about children's education from various perspectives, by integrating the following lectures and ideas in a seminar type session: (1) lectures by professional pediatricians; (2) lectures by professional dentists; (3) effect of music on children.	Iwamizawa campus	Invitation type
16	Kitamura healthy life seminar collaboration project	Starting December 2007, health classes will be held in Kitamura in Iwamizawa City. These classes will conduct designing, planning and evaluating sports programs as well as measure and evaluate parts of the blood chemistry test values.	Iwamizawa campus	Invitation type
17	Project to construct a support system for the contribution to the regional society by current staff and faculty members	This project will actively report back to the local and regional society concerning the achievements of education research activities pursued by the education and clinical psychology major, and moreover to promote a high level of effective contribution to the local and regional society in order to strengthen the partnership with the schools in the region.	Graduate School of Education, Education and clinical psychology major	Invitation type